PLANT WALK

challenge

1. Riddle

I'm not a forest, nor a tree,
yet many blooms are found in me.
A living carpet, wild and free,
with colours dancing easily.
Where paths meet light and open sky,
I'm where the summer flowers lie.

Where are we going? .....

2.

Leucanthemum vulgare,

or .....

3.

Find the Rock Whitebeam

4.

When botanists do field work, they don't always find plants in bloom. This exercise is for you to locate a rare plant that may be easy to overlook at first, known as the Sticky Catchfly.

5. Riddle

I'm no snake, yet I have a tongue.
Where hunters roamed, I softly sprung.
I don't stand out, I stay quite small.
Keep your eyes sharp and you might see all.

Who and where am I? .....
